

April 11th 2006

GET IN QUICK - BASSINTHEGRASS 2006

The Territory's biggest music extravaganza - BASSINTHEGRASS – has attracted some of Australia's biggest bands.

Chief Minister Clare Martin said The Living End and the Hilltop Hoods are among the acts who will play at the Darwin Amphitheatre on May 27.

“This event gets better every year and the 2006 BASSINTHEGRASS will showcase 18 acts over 13 hours,” Ms Martin said.

This year's headliners include:

- The Living End
- The Herd
- Hilltop Hoods
- Lee Harding
- Pete Murray
- Something for Kate
- Gerling
- 28 Days

Ms Martin unveiled the line up of national acts today during an inspection of the venue and a practice session by aspiring local band Black Chapel.

“Our local performers need to get in quickly as nominations to play are closing soon - Music NT has a very difficult job to choose the final line up,” Ms Martin said.

“I thank the major sponsor Savings and Loans Credit Union for supporting our biggest music event and Cadbury Schweppes for supplying free bottled water, Ms Martin said.

Tickets go on sale April 27. Presale $45 (includes booking fee and GST).
BASSINTHEGRASS website: www.bassinthegrass.com.au

Contact the Chief Minister's Office: 08 8901 4000